4 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

5 1. Within thirty (30) days from the date of the entry of this Order Defendants will issue a full 6 refund of all attorney's fees collected in the Cases, whether such fees were collected pre-petition
7 or post-petition, and will cease the collection of any additional fees from such debtors. Defendants 8 will file a certification with the Court, signed under penalty of perjury, that the refunds have been 9 issued within fourteen (14) days of the refunds having been issued. Defendants will stop payment 10 on any check remaining unpaid after ninety (90) days and deposit such unpaid funds with the 11 registry of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington. Within 12 fourteen (14) days of such deposit, Defendants will send notice to the person entitled to such funds, 13 at their last known address, that the funds have been deposited into the Court's registry.

14 2. The Defendants shall seek to withdraw from all bankruptcy cases in which they are 15 currently on record as counsel in a bankruptcy case in the State of Washington within thirty (30)
16 days of the date that the Order is entered by the Court. The Defendants shall send notice to all 17 clients affected by the Order of the Defendants' withdrawal and inform such clients that they 18 have the right to choose their own attorney and must consent to the substitution of any attorney 19 on their behalf.

20 3. Defendants must continue to represent existing clients for which they are attorney of 21 record in a bankruptcy case until a withdrawal and substitution has been filed under Local Rule
22 of Bankruptcy Procedure 2089-1(a); the Court has entered an ex parte order authorizing

1 withdrawal under LBR 2089-1(b)(1); the Court has granted a motion to withdraw filed pursuant 2 to LBR 2089-1(b)(2); or the case is completed. Defendants will report to the United States
3 Trustee if they are unable to seek withdrawal, for any reason, from any bankruptcy case within 4 thirty (30) days of the date of this Order is entered by the Court.

5 4. Except as provided in paragraph 3 above, beginning the Date this Order is entered by the 6 Court for a period of seven (7) years (the Practice Bar), the Defendants, directly or indirectly and 7 individually or through any other corporation or entity, shall not accept or represent consumer 8 bankruptcy debtors or render services in connection with bankruptcy cases or matters brought in, 9 or pending before, or for which proper venue would be the United States Bankruptcy Court for 10 the Western District of Washington or the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern 11 District of Washington, including the preparation and filing of bankruptcy petitions. After the 12 Practice Bar has elapsed, the Defendants may petition this Court for reentry to practice
13 bankruptcy in the State of Washington.

15 5. The Defendants shall not solicit or advertise the firm's provision of bankruptcy related 16 services or seek to be retained in connection with contemplated or pending bankruptcy filings 17 before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington or the United 18 States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Washington during the Practice Bar and until 19 a petition for reentry to practice has been granted by this Court. The Defendants further shall not 20 accept any fees or payments in any form from any individual for whom proper venue for a 21 bankruptcy filing is the Western District of Washington or the Eastern District of Washington.
22 In the event an assisted person has a change in circumstances that results in venue being proper

1 in the Western or Eastern District of Washington, the Defendants shall notify the client that it is 2 unable to serve the client, and that client shall be refunded all fees.

3 6. During the Practice Bar, the Defendants shall include a conspicuous statement on the 4 Websites disclosing that they do not provide bankruptcy related services to, or file bankruptcy
5 cases on behalf of, clients for whom proper venue for a bankruptcy filing is the United States
6 Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington or the United States Bankruptcy Court
7 for the Eastern District of Washington.

8 7. This Order settles all matters raised in the Complaint. Nothing in this Order or the 9 Stipulation affects:

11 a) Matters in any jurisdiction outside of the Western District of Washington.

12 b) The United States Trustee's duties under the Bankruptcy Code or the Federal Rules of 13 Bankruptcy Procedure, nor the United States Trustee's ability to refer Defendants' conduct
14 to the relevant state bar, the United States Attorney, or other state or federal government 15 agency.

16 c) The United States Trustee's ability to take any other action not based on 11 U.S.C. §§ 527
17 and 528, that arose prior to the date of this stipulation in the Western District of Washington 18 he deems appropriate in any other bankruptcy case.

19 d) The United States Trustee's ability to take any action on any of the Cases that the United 20 States Trustee deems appropriate to the extent such action is not related to the conduct and 21 deficiencies summarized in the Stipulation.
22

23 8. The Stipulation and the Order have no effect on the rights of Defendants' clients, 24 bankruptcy trustees, creditors, or other parties in interest.
